STEP 2 – Register in the bank of researchers (you must be logged in)

The screenshot shows the E³UDRES² website. The navigation bar includes links for About, Community, Challenges, News & Events, Change corner, and a purple button labeled "Get connected". A user profile icon labeled "Login" is also present. A dropdown menu is open under "Community", listing "Team", "Students", "Classes", and "Researchers" (highlighted in yellow). The main content area features the heading "LEARN MORE ABOUT our researchers" and a paragraph: "E³UDRES² aims to bring together researchers from different backgrounds to work on our research topics." A yellow arrow points from the "Researchers" menu item to the right side of the page.

Go to

Community > Researchers
